Willkommen.

BIENVENUE. WELCOME.

DEAR DOLLENBERG GUESTS AND FRIENDS,

warm welcome to the Dollenberg, where peaks of delight await. Expect hospitality that comes from the heart with service that flows in our veins like the wonderful Black Forest's traditions that make up our DNA.

Allow us to introduce all the wonderful offers we have for you throughout the year. And we'd like to share a few stories, surprises and highlights as well. Read all about the Dollenberg's year – as individual as your wishes!

We wish you a happy and healthy year ahead and look forward to seeing you!

With kind regards from Meinrad Schmiederer, the Schmiederer and Herrmann families, and the Dollenberg team

EXTRAORDINARY STORY/IES

Hotelier Meinrad Schmiederer is a busy bee whose positive energy exudes from the depths of his soul, even in his videos. A glass of wine is the perfect accompaniment as he shares tales from his eventful life. He is joined in his Stube by famous faces who have long-standing personal connections to the Dollenberg community.

... achievements worth showing off

With incomparable – and infectious – cheer, Meinrad Schmiederer invites us to explore his turf, demonstrating how hospitality, culinary excellence and luxury enrich one another. He might focus on bringing in the grapes from the hotel's own vineyard, tasting the Dollenberger Himmelströpfchen wine, taking a look inside the distillery, or celebrating Oktoberfest at the Renchtalhütte – lovingly and expertly rebuilt after a fire in 2001. Even as a child of humble upbringing, he was certain that he would one day run a luxury hotel. Today, he looks back with satisfaction on his life's work, which is inextricably linked to the region and the beauty of the Black Forest.

... a dependable family

The huge Dollenberg family sticks together, and are always supportive of Meinrad Schmiederer and his ambitious projects. He knows he can always rely on them for support. The Schmiederer and Herrmann

A Dollenberg life: whether it's the summit of delights, a special occasion or just everyday life at the Dollenberg – Meinrad Schmiederer always places you right at the heart of it all!

families pitch in and pull together. The whole team knows that the 'boss' never considers himself too good for any sort of work. They all know his strengths: he is quick-witted, sees the whole picture, and notices immediately if something isn't quite right. This creates trust.

... staying healthy

Amid all his successes, Meinrad Schmiederer has remained down to earth and learnt one thing in particular. Nothing is possible without the greatest joy a person can have: good health. And so he concludes each of his videos with the same sincere wish: 'stay healthy!'

40 Years

OF MARTIN HERRMANN

‘WE OFFER DISHES THAT
RESONATE WITH OUR GUESTS.’

Martin Herrmann

For 40 years, Martin Herrmann has been enchanting family, friends and guests with a sophisticated and constantly evolving cuisine that is among the best in the world. With 2 Michelin stars, he is a testament to the success that can be achieved in the culinary world.

Top chef Martin Herrmann has remained down to earth despite joining Germany's elite group of chefs with 2 Michelin stars (there are only nine with 3 stars). His father was in the food service industry, so even in his youth he knew that cooking was the only career for him. It was literally written in the stars that he would one day be recognised by the Michelin Guide.

What motivates you to achieve great things every day? I'm motivated by my ambition to always give my best. There's no secret to it! Every day is a new beginning. The Michelin stars and awards are wonderful, but my work is my life. Ultimately, I think my success comes down to a mix of creativity, craftsmanship and leadership style.

What is it that excites you about the gourmet world? What's changed in the last 40 years? Being able to cook with the best ingredients is amazing, of course! The most significant changes can be seen in purchasing flexibility and a more conscious, sustainable approach to cooking. Michelin-starred cuisine itself has become more precise.

Which dish is always on the Dollenberg menu? Dollenberg Spaetzle. We've been making it this way for 30 years.

What does Martin Herrmann like to eat most, and where? I love stews. We used to make them at home with the children, but these days we prefer to go out to eat – preferably at my sister Susann's.

THE FIRST STEP

Martin Herrmann's grandmother pointed him to the Dollenberg apprenticeship advertised in the Offenburger Tagblatt. Known throughout the region as a visionary hotel manager, Meinrad Schmiederer recognised the potential in his new apprentice, nurtured him and inspired him to do great things. Since then, Martin Herrmann has trained almost 250 apprentices himself.

Tracht

TWIXT TRADITION AND MODERNITY

In addition to the hat, traditional folk dress in Gutach is characterised by a long, black skirt known as the Wiefelrock, an embroidered velvet bodice, and a Goller (capelet). Originally, the Bollenhut was only worn in three Black Forest villages – Gutach, Kirnbach (Wolfach) and Reichenbach (Hornberg).

PASSING ON THE FLAME IS THE TRUE MEANING OF TRADITION.

A modern tribute to tradition: the artist Max Köhler has updated a Black Forest tradition, avoiding all kitsch and cliché. .

An eye-catching hat with thick red or black pompoms, plus a black pleated skirt, a white blouse with puffed sleeves and long – usually purple – ribbons. When Black Forest women and girls appear in their Tracht (folk dress) at processions and traditional festivals, they attract international attention. The Black Forest Bollenhut hat has been both the distinguishing feature of regional dress and a local cultural symbol since the middle of the 18th century. The fact that it is still proudly worn today shows that traditional dress can simultaneously be a clear statement of identity and excitingly fashionable.

Gutach's folk dress is traditionally made by hand and is still worn today for both church and secular festivities.

ABOUT THE BOLLENHUT

- The Bollenhut is a whitewashed straw hat, adorned with large woollen pompoms. It is tied with a black bow under the chin.
- Each hat can weigh up to 2 kg.
- They each have 14 large Bollen – the pompoms – but only 11 are visible.
- The pompoms symbolise worldliness, the four cardinal points, and the Holy Trinity.
- Married women wear black pompoms, unmarried women wear red.
- A black silk cap is worn underneath the hat.
- In the 1950s, the popular Heimatfilm (homeland film) genre established the Bollenhut as a symbol for the Black Forest as a whole.

Tip: Why not visit the Schwarzwälder Trachtenmuseum (Black Forest Folk Dress Museum) in Haslach and learn more about this well-preserved Black Forest tradition?

THE WISHING Table

A FAIRY TALE COME TRUE

Once upon a time, two hikers were exploring the network of trails through the Black Forest when, tired from their morning walk over the Teufelskanzel and along the Westweg, they suddenly came across a meadow. In this meadow, there were tables, each one adorned with ivory-coloured napkins arranged into elegant fans. As they gazed past the inviting setting the stunning view of the Black Forest valleys and vineyards nestled into the slopes, they wondered: Had somebody read their minds, or was it just a wonderful dream?

Relaxed Gourmet Treats

This was no mirage: staged by Martin Herrmann and his team, Tischlein, Deck Dich! (or 'The Wishing Table' in English) is the highlight of a glorious hike through the beautiful Black Forest. From May to October – provided the weather is good – the Dollenberg hosts a culinary highlight at 1,000m above sea level. A sparkling aperitif during the hike is followed by a convivial 4-course menu in the open air – truly the pinnacle of the Dollenberg's delights. What better than a gentle hike followed by stylish indulgence? Exquisite culinary creations are accompanied by excellent service and wines. The setting, the season, and the taste of the region merge into an experience that will be imprinted on your emotions and senses forever. Moments of happiness. Exhilaration. In nature's embrace.

Adders

Covering an area of 10,000 hectares – roughly 40 square miles – Baden-Württemberg's only national park is home to countless animal and plant species. Among them are numerous varieties of bird, such as woodpeckers, owls, nutcrackers, crossbills, redstarts, and the rare ring ouzel. The capercaillie, threatened with extinction, also finds ideal living conditions in the forests, the idyllic valleys with cirques, moors and the treeless mountain heaths, known as Grinden.

Baden-Württemberg's Only National Park

The Black Forest National Park extends over 27 municipalities in three districts and was founded in 2014 with the aim of creating a protected area for local flora and fauna. Many of the forested and natural areas are left free to grow with little human intervention, allowing their typical wilderness characters to unfold. There is a clever strategy behind this: where nature is allowed to develop undisturbed, it constantly reinvents itself with no need to worry about species conservation and diversity. A positive side effect is that Bad Peterstal Griesbach has become the premier hiking area for people who like to see the big picture, who love life's little pleasures and enjoy the great outdoors.

Europe's smallest owl: Pygmy owl 16-19cm long

Our tip: These premier hiking trails give you the best views of the upper Rench Valley:

- Himmelssteig (10.6km)
- Schwarzwaldsteig (11km)
- Wiesensteig (13.4km)
- Teufelskanzelsteig (7.1km)
- Panoramawegele (4.1km)

National Park Info

Visitors can find out more about the National Park at the Nationalparkzentrum Ruhestein. This is where you will find expert tips, advice and a wide range of fascinating guided tours. The interactive Zum wilder werdenden Wald (Rewilding the Forest) exhibition, a cinema, and the Brücke der Wildnis (Bridge to the Wild) invite all to explore the cycles of nature.

Eco-Friendly: By Bus to the National Park

A courtesy bus from Bad Griesbach to the National Park via Dollenberg and Kniebis came into service in May 2021. This benefits locals and visitors alike, as less traffic means less noise, less pollution and a much more restful holiday environment. The Dollenberg's guests can catch buses to Baden-Baden and Freudenstadt from the hotel's own bus stop.

ENJOY GOLDEN moments

AUTUMN. TIMELESS BEAUTY.
NOURISHES THE SENSES.

The bells

NEVER SOUND AS SWEET ...

... as they do in your own chapel.

St Anna's Chapel sits enthroned, high on the Dollenberg, silent and graceful, looking over the resort as her bells ring throughout the valley. Meinrad Schmiederer looks up at his chapel proudly. Dedicated to his parents, this gem of a building was constructed in 2006 with the support of the whole family. The little chapel bears the name of his mother, Anna, with the same reverence with which the family holds her memory in their hearts. After all, his parents were the ones who laid the groundwork for what is today the Dollenberg Black Forest Resort with the small tourist tavern that grew from a bottled beer shop.

The site of St Anna's Chapel was mentioned in a hymn by Ludwig Uhland (1805).
